

Reading Challenge

How many challenges can you complete this year?

Once you have completed a challenge please bring in your challenge sheet and evidence and get a stamp from Mrs Rensburg.

Write 5 questions you would like to ask one of favourite characters.	Take a photo of you reading in the most unusual place.	Create a new book sleeve with blurb	Write a book review	Find a book of jokes and write down your favourite one.	Read a book whose name begin with your own. Write a short summary naming the author.
Write a diary entry of what the main character did the day after the book finished	Create a scene from a book with your family and take a photo.	Produce a film poster for a book.	Write a letter to an author of your choice. Explain to them what you did and didn't like about their book.	Read a cookery book and make one of the recipes. Photo your cooking skills	Read a book that an older family member read as a child. Write your opinion about their book
Create a cartoon strip of the main events in a book.	Write an alternative ending to a story you read.	Create a postcard for a story setting/location	Research a real life person and write a diary	Draw an image of a character from a book describing your character and appearance	Find a book about a holiday you would like to know more about and one you may not celebrate at home then write about it.
Read a story to someone	Read a book that	Read a book	Read a book where	Read a book where	Redesign the front in your family.	rhymes. Which book did you choose?	recommended by a teacher. Then tell what you think about their choice.	the main character is an animal.	you have seen the film but not read the book. Write down a list of differences.	cover of a Roald Dahl.

Write down any new words you have found in your book and use a dictionary to record what each word means	Design a poster for the book you have read to persuade other people to read the story.	Before you finish a book, write down your predictions for the ending. When you have finished the book, check back to see how accurate your prediction was.	Make a timeline of the important events in the story.	Create your own book mark.	Draw an outline of a character. Write down all the different roles they play in the story inside the shape. E.g. father, husband, friend...
Write an estate agent's advert for a house/dwelling/property in the story	Read a book with a colour in the title.	Read a book that was published the year you were born.	Create puppets of the characters from a book you have read.	From all the books you have read produce your own story for others to read.	Keep a record of every book you have read at home. See if you can read more than the teachers.

